Dear Project ARRIBA's Graduating Class of Fall 2017:

On behalf of El Paso Community College, and the Board of Trustees, it gives me great pleasure to congratulate each of you on a job well done!

A college education is vital to achieving economic mobility and the American Dream. Today you have demonstrated that with hard work and dedication, your dream can be realized. As you go forward empowered with the education and skills required to fill high demand career you have chosen, you are better poised with the ability to improve the quality of life for you and your family and to impact the growth of our great community.

I wish you all the best as you embark on the next chapter in your life. Continue learning, working hard and success will follow.

Again, congratulations for completing your college degree!

Sincerely,

William Serrata, Ph.D.
President
